Dear Art,

"Mr. Kevin is not longer at out station", the operator said when I phoned you.

Well, if he's not there, where the hell is he?

And why?

Best,

Js, his station's owners are heavy on the $$$ to Nixon, and their TV license was under challenge. He was radio newsdirector. It is not a good sign that the operator professed not to know where he is. That and his not mentioning a new job lead me to believe the least pleasant. Aic transit reporters of social concern.
